Old Meadonians' Press Release 17.04.18

Amateur Football Alliance Senior Cup Final

Old Actonians 4 Old Meadonians 2

A lot has been said about revenge but the best semi-correct quotation encapsulates what should be every-one's priority when seeking retribution: 'If seeking revenge it's advisable to dig two graves, one for your-self!' Saturday's meeting was no long awaited grudge match although it is now sixteen years since Meads and OAs faced each other in the Amateur Football Alliance Senior Cup Final. What Old Actonians could not have envisaged happening then, as a result of Old Meadonians beating them on penalties after a closely fought 1-1, 120 minute draw in 2002, was that this event would trigger a sunburst of achievement and Meads would embark on what should be termed a ten year 'purple period', rather than a 'patch', during which they would harvest around 16 trophies of all hues. Last Saturday's re-engagement was two of the best teams in the A.F.A. jousting to be this season's champion and, this time, OAs set the record straight. Again there was no early suggestion of the shape of things to come as Meads dominated possession, denied the A's any easy exit from their hold on territorial advantage by maintaining a high line and reaped the benefit with a just reward. On twenty five minutes Mike Richards won the ball in mid-field, fed Ed Glover who put Craig Jones away on the left with a deft reverse pass for the latter to cross to Ryan Bright's feet and the nimble Bright neatly went past his marker to slot into the bottom corner from the edge of the area. What happened then was that Meads totally lost their sense of discipline to hand OA's the initiative with two get out of jail free cards before the interval. The first millstone went round Meads' neck after an opposing striker was allowed free passage into the area only to be brought down illegally for Meads' keeper, Joe Beharie, to have to pick the ball out of the net. That was on forty minutes but further disaster occurred before the ref called a ten minute truce. Another free pass was issued to an OA's striker but no one had told Beharie not to intervene and he thwarted the insurgent in a one on one. Unfortunately 'Sod's Law' then struck and the ball popped up in front of the striker who still had time to acrobatically execute a bicicletta to hook the ball into the far top corner.

The second half was totally given over to Actonians maintaining their newly gifted ascendancy, comfortably couched on cloud nine but continuously causing Meads trouble on both wings. Their first nail in Meads' coffin was from a well worked move and the A's fourth on seventy five minutes came from a good jinking run past several defenders on the flank and a speedy low cross deflected in from close range. Meads did raise their game for the last ten minutes, finding their high line again and allowing Craig Jones to burst through and score in a one on one but it was too little too late.

2nd Team (Mid-Week Match)

Glyn 0 – 1 Old Meads 2s

As the troops began to congregate at the 'River Club' in Surbiton, the 2s' first midweek fixture of the season seemed to promise much... Perfectly manicured pitches, rich MILFs stepping out of every car and the promise of a post-match rubdown in the spa had even team grinch Jordy Milner in a positive mood. Unfortunately he still hasn't removed the friendship ankle bracelet his sister bought him and continues to be roundly mocked by his teammates...

Things quickly took a downward turn though, when Gerrish revealed that he'd been catfished by the oppo and the game was in fact taking place a couple of miles down the road... in what can only be described as gypsy's garden. Overgrown grass, bald spots to rival Damo's hairline and changing rooms that resembled Fritzel's dungeon, it quickly became apparent that the beautiful game wouldn't be on show tonight. Veteran arm-wrestler Dean Stacey was clearly devastated to miss out on the chance to hoof balls out the park for 90 minutes but thankfully he'd packed his finest Miami Dad trainers and was able limp up and down the touchline abusing the ref for the duration.

The first half was a fairly open affair with both sides creating chances. Glyn almost broke through when Goodie was caught showing the striker photos of his unborn child but the flare-wearing defender managed to scramble back and clear the danger before Simon could be lobbed yet again.

Neither midfield saw much action in the first half as the long ball game was employed by both sides, something which suited Meads after Dan Stewart had once again nipped off for another rimming session with one of his "contacts".

Just before half time though, Meads went ahead. A mix-up in the Glyn defence allowed Charlie Kimpton to get his newly-dyed hair to the ball and lift it over the keeper. 1-0 Meads and rumours of Charlie embracing life as a lesbian called Chantelle continue to grow...

In the second half, the front three of Bronzed Boynts, Salmon McKenna and Angry Allen continued to knock on the door but couldn't find that killer second goal.

With about 25 to go, centre back Ronald Reid, fresh from a strong showing at Aintree, had a complete head loss. After watching the Glyn striker once again hurl himself to the floor in search of a peno, Reid proceeded to shove the little prick to the deck before throwing a series of devastating blows to the lad's head (4 slaps and a limp-wristed punch). Unfortunately for the angry Scotsman, the ref clocked the incident and duly sent Ronald back to the stables for an early bath.

Despite the loss of a man and two Glyn shots smacking against the frame of their goal, Meads stubbornly held on for a crucial win.

Gaffer Gerrish, who will hope to welcome back inspirational captain Aaron Glover in the next few weeks following a long and difficult battle with weight issues, was a relieved man at the final whistle. As things stand the league is very much still in Meads' hands with 5 games to play. We go again against HAC on Saturday...
